Poster Notes

In 2003, Hannah Taylor met Rick Adams for the first time at a soup kitchen in Winnipeg. At that time, Rick was living in a run-down hotel. Hannah and Rick became great friends, and their friendship continues today. Hannah has helped and inspired Rick to change his life, and she has since seen him find a home to call his own and a job to go to during the week. Caring and sharing, and love and friendship can help make a difference in everyone's lives.
